Mexican Impudence.

A gentleman lately from Sonora whose word is as good as gold, and who is intimately acquainted with the facts, gave a reporter of THE TOMBSTONE the following to-day:

Shortly after Lieut. Parker and command left New Mexico, the Governor of Chihuahua sent six hundred Mexican troops after him, with orders for his arrest. Lieut. Parker was acting under the provisional treaty with Mexico allowing United States troops to pursue hostile Indians on Mexican soil. After the Mexican troops had been on the march three days in pursuit of Lieut. Parker, they were recalled by order of President Diaz.

When Lieut. Parker left New Mexico, he sent several wagons ahead, with an infantry escort to Carretas, in Chihuahua. With this escort were two infantry officers and a surgeon. When they arrived at Carretas, there was camped near them a company of Mexican soldiers who immediately placed them under arrest and held them as prisoners until Lieut. Parker and his troop of cavalry, who went around through Cajon Bonito, arrived. Upon the arrival of Lieut. Parker, the officers under arrest, left the Mexicans and went over to where the lieutenant was and reported. The Mexicans then sent courier to higher authority for further orders, and in answer received orders to treat American troops with all courtesy.

Two days afterward when Lieut. Parker broke camp, the Mexicans who had subsequent to the arrest of the American officers, treated Parker and command with the utmost courtesy, came over to bid him farewell, and were particularly punctilious in saluting the American flag.

Lieutenant Parker found it necessary in the cause of humanity, to give these Mexican troops who had arrested his officers, sufficient rations to carry them back to their post.

Grand Opening.

As a great many of our citizens would like to know where they can get an extra fine breakfast to-morrow morning, we will tell them a little secret, viz: A few days ago Nick, the popular manager of the Maison Doree Dining Rooms, and old Loui the cook, leased the Fountain Restaurant, and have been busily engaged ever since in fitting up the same, and to-morrow morning they will open it up to the public with one of the finest breakfasts ever spread before the public. They will also celebrate their opening with a fine dinner in the afternoon. There will be roast turkey, chicken and roast pig, and also a genuine French dinner consisting of 12 courses, the first of the kind ever introduced in this city. This will not be only for one day but for all time, as the proprietors will keep everything that this and the California markets afford on hand at all times. Don't fail to take breakfast or dinner there to-morrow or both. Remember the place the Fountain Restaurant conducted by Nick and Loui.

REMINISCENCES.

DEDICATED TO THE JERSEY LILLY.

LAKE TAHOE, July 4th, 1886.

"How sweet to wander on the sand
And listen to the music of the band,
To fish remote from vulgar view
Catch minnows and pneumonia too.
To have your biceps firmly placed
Around a pretty widow's waist;
In fact to have a jollier time
Than can be writ in prose or rhyme;
But joys are sadly rent asunder
For the whole business costs like thunder."

The above lines were written by a gentleman who spent a few weeks on the sea shore, and who is now a busted community at Lake Tahoe, where in the company of school marm and widows, he hopes by matrimonial measures to enlarge his bank account.

Gus Tribolet is now running his meat market on Allen street on a strictly cash basis and it will pay our citizens to call at his shop and get the choicest cuts of beef for very little cash. 8-6 tf.

We received a very pleasant call this morning from Mrs. I. S. Barnes, nee Monroe. Mrs. Barnes was formerly a compositor on THE TOMBSTONE. Her visit was like a ray of sunshine in the office, and we hope that she will repeat the visit often.

Wind Storm.

Last evening shortly before six o'clock Phenix was struck by cross winds—one from the north and the other from the south—and the damage which ensued for a few minutes was considerable. The roof of the adobe building on Center street across the alley from the telegraph office and owned by M. L. Hollett, was lifted up, carried about twenty feet and completely demolished. A portion of the iron roof on the warehouse of Smith & Kales were rolled up like so much paper, while the shingle roof of Hosea Greenhaw near the river, was blown about thirty feet. Will Woods living in the western end of the town lost a porch from his residence. At the fair grounds 20 box stalls were entirely demolished and several hundred dollars worth of property thus lost. The circus tent at the Phenix park was blown away and torn into shreds. Frush has been unfortunate and this loss will be severely felt. The dwelling house of F. C. Norris down the river is also minus a roof to-day. Everywhere trees were uprooted, prostrated and the streets were literally filled with their branches. While the less suffered in the aggregate is not insignificant we are pleased to state no loss of life or injury was suffered by our people. After the wind storm a shower of rain was enjoyed.—Gazette.

The Primaries.

As THE TOMBSTONE will not issue again until after the Republican primaries are over we call upon every member of the party in the county to lay aside business on that day long enough to go and vote and we hope that all employers will give their employees time enough off to vote, as it is the duty of every Republican to turn out and cast his vote upon that day in order to secure a pure and harmonious convention one that will be free from any so-called bossism and slate makers, one that when its labors are ended will have nominated a ticket that will be strong and invincible and one that victory will perch upon its banner when the ideas of November are past. This county is Republican by a large majority, and if the Republicans do their duty on Monday next, the party will roll up such a victory this fall, as will for ever preclude the possibility of another democratic ticket in this county. Again we call upon every Republican in the county to do his duty on Monday next, and that duty is to turn out and vote.

There will be a social dance given at Schieffelin Hall on Monday evening next by the Uniform Rank K. of P. in honor of their anniversary. Invitations have been issued to the members of the K. of P. and to the members of the Workingmen.

I. S. Barnes informed THE DAILY TOMBSTONE to-day that he received seventeen applications from young lady printers of Trinidad Colorado, asking him to use his influence with us in order to secure situations on this paper. Several of them sent their photographs and the balance will send theirs along right away. They may be seen by applying to I. S. Barnes. The editor of this paper gave Mr. Barnes no satisfaction as he does not care to be ill treated by the marriageable girls of this city.

Great Britain Speaks.

Special to THE DAILY TOMBSTONE.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—England has suggested to the Powers that it would be unwise to inflict further injury upon Prince Alexander, by the endorsement of any conspiracy or any other act of the evil doers at Sofia, pointing out that Alexander has shown himself to be in accord with the vast majority of his subjects, and therefore it would be not only unfair but highly impolitic on the part of the Powers to interfere with his reinstatement. In this the powers have acquiesced and unless Alexander has strong personal objections to again rule over Bulgaria, he will make his triumphal entry into Sofia next week.
